Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Management

Program Type: Online

Did You Know?
• All CCAF AAS degrees are accepted in transfer by the University of Arizona Global Campus.
• You only need a maximum of 60 additional credits from the University of Arizona Global Campus to complete your Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Management.

Degree Focus:

The Organizational Management program is designed for students who have work experience and desire to improve their understanding of how organizations function and develop effective skills in management and leadership. The curriculum places emphasis on the human side of managing organizations, allowing for skill development in communication, group behavior, decision making, human resource management, and ethics. Focused attention is given to defining and understanding strategic planning, financial management, law, and marketing areas in which an organizational leader must be knowledgeable to be effective.

Program Outcomes:

Organizational Management major graduates will be able to:

- Examine one's personal leadership style and determine its appropriateness to various organizational situations;
- Formulate management-level decisions within the organizational framework;
- Formulate strategies for effective team development;
- Analyze alternative solutions for complex business problems;
- Compare and contrast individual characteristics that influence work behaviors and organizational effectiveness; and
- Analyze the impact of social problems on the workplace at the individual, group, organizational, and societal levels.
