COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Lieutenant General Anthony R. “Tony” Hale

With a distinguished military career spanning more than three decades, Lieutenant General Hale brings a profound message of service, leadership, and perseverance to this year’s graduating class. As the Army’s 48th Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence, he leads a global intelligence and security enterprise of over 60,000 soldiers and civilians. His inspiring leadership and commitment to national service will undoubtedly resonate with UAGC’s diverse student body—many of whom are active-duty military, veterans, working parents, and adult learners striving to achieve their educational goals against all odds.

Before assuming his current role, LTG Hale served as the Commanding General and Commandant of the U.S. Army Intelligence Center of Excellence and Fort Huachuca. His previous leadership roles include Director of Intelligence at U.S. Special Operations Command and Joint Special Operations Command, and deployments in Bosnia, Kosovo, Afghanistan, and Iraq.

The appearance of U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) visual information does not imply or constitute DoD endorsement. The use of military-affiliated images does not imply endorsement of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).

Lieutenant General Hale earned his commission in the Military Intelligence Corps through North Carolina State University in 1990, where he holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Political Science. He holds a Master’s Degree “with Distinction” in National Security and Strategic Studies from the United States Naval War College.
